

Accessibility indicators

Accessibility indicators are necessary for monitoring the progress of accessibility work both domestically and abroad.

City Planning Department accessibility incorporated in city plans and local detailed plans specification of areas with special and basic accessibility levels, and of accessible routes, together with the Helsinki for All project incorporation in traffic planning of new type drawings relating to street areas audio-guided intersections % / all intersections

Helsinki City Transport number of low-floor buses % / all buses (separate figures for rush hour) number of low-floor trams % / all trams (separate figures for rush hour) number of accessible bus stops number of accessible tram stops number of raised bus and tram stops / all stops number of accessible bus stations number of accessible metro stations obtaining of data on stops for use as GIS data

Sports Department

number of accessible sports facilities

Education Department

amount of accessibility mapping / all needs assessments for renovation projects number of accessible premises / all buildings

Social Services Department

amount of accessibility mapping / all needs assessments for renovation projects
number of accessible premises / all buildings

Health Centre

amount of accessibility mapping / all needs assessments for renovation projects
number of accessible premises / all buildings

Premises Centre

amount of accessibility mapping / all needs assessments for renovation projects
number of accessible premises / all buildings

Public Works Department number of accessible routes / km number of accessible parks and playparks number of accessible public toilets

Port of Helsinki

number of accessible terminals / all terminals

Economic and Planning Centre number of blocks of flats with lifts / all blocks of flats